Kennedy Lowers the Boom on Politicos—Rest of Us Are Free

In this presidential campaign the Southern States have been visited with a new and ominous threat.

For the first time in the nation's history a man campaigning for president has ordered the executive branch to interfere with the traditional rights of the legislative wing of government.

Only report what has already been said in the public press when I tell you that John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, has warned Democratic members of Congress from the South either to support him publicly or risk the loss of their committee seats in the new House and Senate.

Southern Senators and Congressmen, bound to the party by their primary oaths, have no choice but to bow before the Leader's threat.

But a free press and a free people have no obligation except to their conscience and their country.

On Tuesday, November 8, I am going to vote for the Nixon-Lodge ticket. I won't be alone. In 1952 the Republican national ticket polled 44% of the Eisenhower-Stephenson total in Hempstead county, and lacked but 57 votes of carrying the City of Hope. In 1956 the Republican percentage was almost identical, 43.1.

On the 1960 issues let me dispose of the religious question at once. My home town is Wilkes-Barre, Pa., where Catholics are 25% of the population. My father's attorney, the late Anthony Campbell, was a Catholic; so are his nephews, Campbell and John Collins, who inherited Mr. Campbell's law practice — boys I went to school with, and who today represent our family's lost link with the old home town. I supported and voted for Catholic Al Smith in 1928 while editor at El Dorado. Jack Kennedy is a better man in every respect than Al Smith was. I could trust him in the White House as soon as any Methodist or Baptist — except for one thing: His platform.

The Kennedy platform commits our government to spending an extra 40 billion dollars to create a Welfare State. It was reportedly written by Walter Reuther, head of the United Automobile Workers union. The Democratic platform spells out for you Bigger Government, Bigger Debt, and Bigger Taxes.

Yet World War II is 15 years behind us, the federal debt is approximately 300 billion dollars; high income taxes are strangling business and the people — and a growing recession in Europe and Canada is backing up on our own United States — fixing a frightening limit on what any Administration can do for the American people. For when the chips are down, if the people themselves won't or can't buy government bonds then the Administration is helpless, and you can write a ticket for harder times than we have ever known. We had warning of this last winter in Wall Street, when a deluge of government refinancing of short-term bonds soaked up most of the available credit and sent private interest rates to a new high.

After 37 years in the South my political position is the same as that of a native son. All my office-holding friends are Democrats. I don't know any Republicans. But the tradition of Democrats is to oppose Big Government — and year after year the National Democratic Party has violated this tradition until today there are millions like myself who stand ready to fight it regardless of the odds quoted by the poll-takers.

Jack Kennedy is a good Joe personally. But to me he spells out the picture of a son with a father who has 400 million dollars, who never rustled up a penny in his life — and who in the heat of personal ambition has ignored the fatal combination he has put together to threaten the life and liberty of this Republic.

The historic pattern for the downfall of Republics was written long ago. Very rich men entrap the populous poor, seize control of government — and the private citizen wakes up one morning to find himself without liberty and without personal defense. The ancient example was Rome — the modern is any dictatorship in a "Banana Republic."

As my readers know, I have been conducting a costly one-man campaign against Big Government and its tax censorship policies which finally have been extended against a free press and its editors.

Freedom is a quality that must be retained — not delegated. Some Americans are foolish enough to believe that if they lose any of their personal liberties they will be protected by some organization they belong to. Then the organization is destroyed — or outvoted — and the citizen wakes up to find he is no longer a man but a lost number.

The mob may be intrigued by the adventure of Big Government. Me? I am and old school editor, committed to the defense of the individual. I am opposed to the Kennedy-Johnson picture of the U. S. A. The Nixon-Lodge ticket promising a government at least no Bigger than it now is I am going to vote for it on Tuesday.

AEA Elects New President

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mrs. Wallace Jennings, a second grade teacher from Russellville, was elected president of the Arkansas Education Association's Department of Classroom Teachers today.

Tranquilizers Alone Cost $100,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ten years ago the Arkansas State Hospital spent $40,000 a year on all its medicine.

Now it spends $100,000 annually on tranquilizers alone.

This was revealed today when A. C. Yopp, hospital administrator, appeared before the Arkansas Legislative Council to defend the hospital's request for an appropriation of $6,800,000 for each of the next two years. That is $700,000 per year more than the present budget.

Weather

Partly cloudy to cloudy and cooler today and tonight, with a chance of a few showers in northern portion early today.

Kennedy In New York for Final Bid

By RELMAN MORIN

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy, looking increasingly confident, brought his hard-driving campaign to New York again today in a final bid for that state's 45 electoral votes.

Kennedy himself was still cautious — publicly — about the outcome of next Tuesday's presidential election.

"In the last three days, we've been in eight states, all of which are regarded as close," he told reporters. He listed California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Virginia, Ohio and Illinois.

"I felt the tide there moving in our direction," he said. "And from all reports, our position has improved in the last seven days."

The Democratic presidential candidate has consistently said the election looked close.

But huge and thunderous enthusiastic receptions Friday in Virginia, Ohio and Chicago obviously lifted his hopes.

Kennedy's last big foray in New York City and the heavily populated surrounding areas followed a similar sweep by Vice President Richard M. Nixon last Wednesday. Kennedy chose this strategic battleground as the spot to jab at Nixon for enlisting what he called the "Republican rescue squad."

He referred primarily to President Eisenhower's appearance in New York, along with other top GOP leaders and candidates. Kennedy drew laughs and applause when he said, "We are not electing a committee as president of the United States."

Leaving Chicago, Kennedy told correspondents on his airplane that he felt his arguments on "economic issues are hitting harder."

He hammered at unemployment, farm income, and the possibility of a "third recession" all through the Middle West. Coming into New York, he emphasized a bread-and-butter issue — the cost of living.

In a speech prepared for delivery at a woman's luncheon in Bronx County, Kennedy hinted that, if elected, he might appoint a woman to serve as a "consumer counsel."

Kennedy's final appearance in Chicago Friday night was one of the biggest, noisiest, most colorful and highly organized of the whole campaign.

How many hundreds of thousands of people marched, ran and simply lined the rain-swept streets will never be known.

Several times excited admirers hopped Kennedy on the head with placards. Earlier, in Toledo, Ohio, a tomato hit the windshield of his car. He had an infected hand, scratched and swollen to twice its normal size from shaking too many hands.

Chicago Stadium, with a capacity of 26,000, was filled to overflowing for Kennedy's last speech in Illinois. It was nationally televised. Every time he paused for breath, the thousands cheered, no matter what he said.

Fulbright Lists Gains by Commies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright of Arkansas has listed what he said were Communist gains during the administration of President Eisenhower.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said his statement Thursday was in reply to what he called Eisenhower's campaign claim that there had been no such gains "in any area where American influence and arms were involved."

The Democratic Fulbright said that in such a declaration Eisenhower took no notice of developments in Cuba.

Besides that, Fulbright said, these other items would have to be listed as Communist gains: Evacuation of the Tachen Islands and their abandonment to Communist China; rise of a government in Laos friendly to the Communists after the United States had supplied nearly $250 million in aid; loss of the northern half of Viet Nam to the Communist; large-scale Communist penetration in the Middle East and Communist influence in next two years. That is $700,000 per year more than the present budget.

Injuries Fatal to DeQueen Carrier

DE QUEEN, Ark. (AP) — John Orling, a 15-year-old newspaper carrier, died today of injuries suffered Thursday when his motor scooter and a freight train collided.

Police said the youth was thrown under the train and dragged about 45 feet. The accident occurred as he was going to pick up his papers.

Orling was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Orling of De Queen.

Nixon Battles for Electoral Vote in Calif.

By MARVIN ARROWSMITH

EN ROUTE WITH NIXON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon, battling for the 32 electoral votes of his home state of California, today accused Sen. J. P. Kennedy of talking "synthetic bunk" on financing of the Democratic program.

Nixon, Republican candidate for the presidency, arrived in the central California community of Fresno Friday night, got a tumultuous welcome from a police-estimated crowd of 15,000 which surged out of control at times and arranged a busy day in the state.

Traveling by plane and automobile, the vice president booked campaign speeches in San Jose, Hayward, Oakland and Van Nuys today, and was to move on to Los Angeles for a coast-to-coast television address tonight.

Nixon put out a statement contending once again that programs advocated by Kennedy, Democratic nominee for the White House, would add 15 billion a year to federal spending.

Nixon said Kennedy, in Norfolk, Va., Friday pledged that he would adhere to sound fiscal policy if elected.

"He can't have it both ways," the vice president declared. "He can't go to Virginia and be sensible for one hour of one day of one week, and then during the rest of the time espouse his platform's free spending, cheap money doctrines."

"America is a big place but not so big that such tactics go undiscovered."

"It is synthetic bunk for Mr. Kennedy to represent to the American people that his lavish spending programs can be financed, as he has sought to do, by closing tax loopholes by companies in administration or by economic growth."

This latest Nixon attack in this major battleground state picked up where Nixon left off Friday in his steadily sharpening criticism of his rival.

Officials Are Unhappy Over Report

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top administration officials are reported unhappy at a United Nations report which says returning Belgium to a United Nations restorative order in the tension-ridden African country.

In their view, the U.N. report is to sweeping and unnecessarily harsh in its denunciation of Belgian efforts to help the regime of army Col. Joseph Mobutu.

Without some Belgian technicians, these officials believe, the Congo would have collapsed in new bloodshed and possibly civil war, despite U.N. efforts to keep the peace.

Some officials expressed fear that left-wing ex-Premier Patrice Lumumba might be able to stage a comeback in the present confused situation.

The State Department kept silent officially concerning the report submitted Thursday by Indian diplomat Rajeshwar Dayal, special U.N. representative leading U.N. peace units in the Congo. Top State Department officials were reported conferring on what to say publicly about the report, including an appeal that warring Congo factions unite in a government of conciliation.

The State Department was believed to favor some sort of coalition to restore orderly government, including a revival of the Congo Parliament. But there was obvious concern over the prospect that the pro-Communist elements in the Congo might gain power, opening the way for the return of Soviet-bloc technicians whom Mobutu ousted when he took temporary control.

There appeared to be a realization, however, that some new leader might have to emerge in the Congo to block Lumumba's return and to replace Mobutu's apparently unsatisfactory regime.

Authorities familiar with the swift flow of Congo events showed no tendency to absolve Belgium completely from a hand in the continuing chaos.

Some Belgians, it was felt, undoubtedly have returned illegally to stir up trouble. Officials said many Belgian technicians, however, are performing constructive roles in helping to revive the machinery of government.

Arkansas Is Near Bottom in Voter Percentage Turning Out for a General Election

By MARY ANITA LASETER

At this time, next week the American people will have elected a new President. No matter who wins it will be something new for the loser. Neither man has ever held the office of Chief Executive and, by the same token, neither man has ever suffered a pollster's defeat. As the saying goes, "There's a first time for everything."

The man who takes office as president of the United States next January will be the 35th to hold that office since it was established some 171 years ago. Only four times has a man been defeated by and, later, victorious over his opponent. John Adams defeated Thomas Jefferson in 1796, and Jefferson won over Adams in 1800. It happened to John Quincy Adams and Andrew Jackson, too, with the former being the winner in 1824 and the latter ending victoriously in 1828.

Marlin Van Buren was the winner over William Henry Harrison in 1836, and four years later Van Buren was defeated by Harrison. In the 1860's after Grover Cleveland had served one term as President, he was defeated in his second term by Benjamin Harrison. Then, Cleveland ran against Harrison in 1892 and won, thus becoming the only man in history to make a political comeback after suffering defeat for the office of President of the United States.

At the time of their inauguration the average age of our Presidents has been 55, and only six of those attaining that office were under 50 — Theodore Roosevelt, 42; Grant and Cleveland, 46; Pierce, 48; Polk and Garfield, 49. Another name will soon be added to the list of 40-year-old Presidents as both Nixon and Kennedy come in that category. When he leaves the White House in January, Eisenhower will have been the only man to be President at the age of 70. Though William Henry Harrison was 68 at the time he was elected, he held the office for the shortest time of anyone, due to his death a few weeks after inauguration.

Only a few of our Presidents have been relatives of other Presidents. John Adams and John Quincy Adams were father and son. William Henry Harrison was the grandfather of Benjamin Harrison. Madison and Taylor were second cousins, and the two Roosevelts were fifth cousins. James Buchanan was the only bachelor President. Grover Cleveland was the only one to be married in the White House (although John Tyler and Woodrow Wilson were both married while President), and Tyler was easily the champ President-father with 15 children.

The most versatile President was Thomas Jefferson, who was lawyer, architect, philosopher, surgeon, linguist, inventor, violinist, and mathematician. Who was the most ardent golfer to occupy the White House? No, you're wrong. It was Woodrow Wilson, who played winter and summer, using black golf balls when snow was on the ground.

As is always the case, the present presidential campaign has been hard on both candidates. There is no telling how much they have smiled, talked, and shaken hands. But they would have a hard time topping record of Theodore Roosevelt who, on New Year's Day, 1907, shook hands 8,513 times.

It is sincerely hoped that each of you has become as informed as possible regarding the impending election and then exercises the privilege of voting. A government of the people and for the people cannot long endure without being supported by the people. Though the largest number of Americans yet voted in the last Presidential election, it was only 60% of those who could have voted. Arkansas was near the bottom of the states in percentage of voters, as only 39.9% of eligible voters cast their ballots.

Let's have a good turn-out at the polls next Tuesday. On our decision rest America's future for the next four years.

Johnny Horton Is Killed In Car Accident

MILANO, Texas (AP) — Recording star Johnny Horton was killed early today in a two-car head-on collision at Milano, Texas. Police said the 35-year-old Horton was driving a car in which were his manager, Milton Franks and Gerald Tomlinson. Both men were injured. The three were residents of Shreveport. Horton was noted as a singer of country music.

The driver of the other car was 19-year-old James Evans Davis of Brady, Texas. All were taken to a Cameron Texas hospital. Horton was dead on arrival. State police said that none of the injured were believed in serious condition.

Have to Cut Children's Home Budget

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Legislative Council Thursday told the Arkansas Children's Colony to cut its legislative budget request of $100,000 for the 1961-62 fiscal year.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus had trimmed it to that figure from $825,000 before submitting it to the council. The council must approve budget requests and recommend them to the Legislature.

The council ordered the board of directors of the Children's Colony, at Conway, to revise the budget on operation of the Colony at its present capacity, instead of on a proposed expansion as had been done earlier.

Council members said the Legislature had not yet approved an expansion and it would be presumptuous to recommend an appropriation for something not yet permitted by legislation.

The colony plans to expand its facilities to care for 412 mentally retarded children instead of the present 250.

Some council members said the colony budget was "out of line."

The council probably will act today on requests for appropriations for the University of Arkansas' Industrial Research and Extension Center in Little Rock made Thursday by University president Dr. David W. Mullins.

The center wants $174,020 for 1961-62 and $182,500 for 1962-63. It had $125,000 last year.

Says Communism No Class Danger

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — American educators should not fear discussing communism in the classroom, a Miami, Fla., author of textbooks said today.

Mrs. Mae Knight Clark, who has a number of published elementary school books to her credit, told a session of the Arkansas Education Association convention that teachers should "teach our children more about the total world."

"We've had a tendency in the school world to shun even saying the name of communism," Mrs. Clark said. "We must face it squarely and in faith that our democracy has nothing to fear by comparison. There's nothing to be gained by ignorance."

Mrs. Clark addressed a luncheon meeting at the AEA's Department of Classroom Teachers.

Ike Attacks Campaign of Sen. Kennedy

PITTSBURGH (AP) — President Eisenhower Friday night declared that federal taxes will "skyrocket" or "higher prices will return" if the Democrats win the presidential election next Tuesday.

Eisenhower attacked the campaign tactics of John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential candidate. He urged all-out support for Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican standard bearer.

"The President told a rally of 3,000 at a dinner that he was urging support of Nixon and his running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge because he is concerned for the future of the United States and your hopes for peace with justice in freedom."

"The Democratic platform," the President declared in a speech televised nationally by NBC, "would mean 'swollen costs and mushrooming expenditures.'"

"Our opponents, of course, are experts at assuring us that neither higher taxes nor deficit spending will be sued to meet additional costs. But all history shows the absurdity of this claim."

"This is a time for weeded honesty — even if the American people have to apply a little weeded discipline to get it. Unless they do, the American family will pay the costs of its family budget because either federal taxes will skyrocket once again or the chain dollar and higher prices will return."

The President said America "must have leadership — leadership of the very finest kind that we can produce. In this campaign only in Richard Nixon and Ambassador Lodge is the best of such leadership found. The possess a rich experience in swinging the kind of war in which we are now engaged; in meeting the needs of our nation to support our world purposes and in leading us to victory."

Newspaper, Ministers in Libel Suit

By REX THOMAS

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — A $500,000 libel suit, judgment against the New York Times and four Negro ministers — an outgrowth of Alabama's racial troubles — was headed today for appeal to the higher courts.

Twelve white jurors in State Court Thursday awarded the record judgment to Montgomery Police Commissioner L. B. Sullivan, who said he was libeled by an advertisement which appeared in the Times.

The jury deliberated two hours and 10 minutes before returning the largest damage suit award ever handed down by an Alabama court.

Attorneys who represented the newspaper in the three-day trial said they will appeal to the Alabama Supreme Court.

The Times withheld comment on the verdict.

The Negro defendants, whose names appeared in the ad — the Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy and the Rev. Solomon S. Sany Sr., of Montgomery, the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth of Birmingham and the Rev. J. E. Lowery of Mobile — called it part of the price of their "struggle for freedom and dignity."

The suit by Sullivan was the first to be tried of four complaints filed by members of the City Commission and Gov. John Patterson because of the full-page advertisement which appeared in the Times March 29.

Soliciting funds for the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. before the Negro integration leader was acquitted on charges of lying about his state income taxes, the ad dealt in part with the handling of Negro college student demonstrations here last March.

Sullivan and the other public officials denounced the advertisement as false and malicious, and said it held them up to ridicule.

My Readers
Have Their Day

BY HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

In a recent column I told a mother of seven that the rearing of children was the responsibility of the wife rather than the husband. Did that bring the ceiling down on me?

"According to you all the juvenile delinquency in the world is the woman's fault," storms an anonymous reader from Buckley Wash. "Webster says 'husband' means 'master' head of the family to manage. The Bible says a husband shall rule his wife and command his children, and his household. I know a woman should teach her children the right way and the wrong but a man in the eyes of God is more responsible for keeping the family together."

I agree—but too few fathers assume that responsibility. Check with half a dozen friends. Pair out of six will tell you that their mother not their father was the greatest influence in their lives. The latter could be but is not. My maternal grandfather is the single exception in my own family. My father's mother and not his father was most certainly in charge of his family. I still maintain whether a woman likes it or not the responsibility of rearing the children is hers!

Dr. Julian Wood Selig of Chapel Hill, N. C. disagrees violently. "I was appalled to read your reply," he writes. "If anyone has failed it is you. As you pointed out her troubles are surely her responsibility as well as her husband's. However, usually, these misfortunes are certainly not conscious inventions."

This was apropos of the mother's statement that her oldest child was wanted by the law, the next runs around with a married woman and the third left his wife and two kids for a married woman.

J. E. J. of Tacoma Wash. wants to know why I always blame the woman. "Don't you ever think a man could do any wrong?" she demands. "You blame the woman if her husband runs around. You blame her if the kids aren't brought up right. If it wasn't for women what would men do? Give us credit for something. Aren't you a woman? I am a mother of four and have a wonderful husband!"

An ex-G.I. of Beaver Penn. asks what I've got against the men, particularly soldiers and sailors. "I recently returned from Korea," he explains. "Nine out of 10 G. I.'s there have girl friends fiancées and wives to whom they are true. I was one of these nine men. I was shocked to find things were the other way around when I returned home. I love my wife but it will be a long time before I can trust or respect her and that hurts both of us. Why tear down the men who're doing their best for their country. Mrs. Erskine?"

I've got nothing against the men. I like them but most of them are polygamists.

X. Y. of Willoughby Ohio carried the war between men and women further. "I read your column about a woman picking up after her man," she says. "What about a man doing the same for a woman? The more you do for a man the more he wants you to do. Take it from me!"

Mrs. E. B. C. of New London

Conn. writes "I am the wife of the man that wrote about his old lady," she tells me. "I have worked all my life to make a home for him. If that woman and her kind would leave married men alone there would be a lot more happy homes. I have cried and begged my husband to stay away from her but still she chases him. There isn't anything like an old fool."

On the same subject a North Carolina wife writes "I read your article about the wife being 166 often taken for granted. Well I've been more than taken! I have been married 15 years to one of the most obnoxious and inconsiderate men who ever existed. Don't talk to me about the chivalry of sailors. My husband's in the Navy. The only time I've ever had any money to spend on house and children is when he's out at sea. Now he's been writing and seeing another woman. One of her letters was delivered here by this take. That was the day I called him a commanding officer and left him. However, out of sympathy I came back as I had my job here with house and children. He claims it is my fault he can't be promoted. I tell him I didn't write the letter that started all the trouble."

A "MINIMUM WAGE" LAW WILL PUT ARKANSAS FARMERS under the thumb of a LABOR CZAR

The proposed "Arkansas Minimum Wage Act" to be voted on in the General Election next November attempts to deceive the farmers of Arkansas. Patently, the proposed Act exempts "any individual employed in agricultural farm labor." But, ask yourself THIS question:

WHO...is to define Agricultural "FARM LABORER"?

The Act says that the definition of "farm laborer" will be made by the STATE COMMISSIONER OF LABOR—a political appointee serving at the whim of whatever Governor might be in office—and an Advisory Board of not more than nine persons WHO SHALL BE APPOINTED BY THE LABOR COMMISSIONER.

Here is what happened in at least one case where a Labor Commissioner ruled on "farm laborer":

A worker picking cotton in the field was a "farm laborer" and therefore not covered under the minimum wage law. BUT, WHEN THAT SAME COTTON PICKER WAS ASKED TO DRIVE A TRUCK TO THE GIN OR TO TOWN ON AN ERRAND, HE NO LONGER WAS CONSIDERED A "FARM LABORER" AND THUS BECAME ENTITLED TO THE MINIMUM WAGE AS SPECIFIED BY LAW.

Is a tractor driver a "farm laborer"? Is the farm hand fixing a flat tire in the farm shop a "farm laborer"? How about the worker who spends part of a day mending a fence or patching a barn roof? The status of any farm worker, under the proposed "Minimum Wage" law, will depend entirely upon the whim of the Labor Commissioner!

Obviously, such broad powers vested in a virtual dictator in the person of the Labor Commissioner would not be acceptable to farmers—or to any segment of our economy.

Farmers Will Be Caught In Price-Cost Squeeze

All farmers will be affected by the "minimum wage" proposal through their suppliers. The farm supplier can cover his added operating costs by raising prices. The farmer CANNOT pass on his increased production costs because he has no control over prices paid for his crops and livestock. The farmer will be caught squarely in the middle of a cost-price squeeze... and no one knows better than the farmer the disastrous results of such a position.

Let's Not Shackle our farmers with a law that is Deceptive in nature -- a law that is basically unsound and incapable of benefitting anyone!

Bids Considered on Beaver Dam

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Louisiana and North Carolina firms submitted an apparent low joint bid Thursday for construction of the main Beaver Dam on White River in northwest Arkansas.

The work calls for a concrete dam 1,333 feet long and 23 feet above the stream bed. It will require 3 1/2 years to complete. The dam will be a flood control and hydroelectric project. When completed, Beaver Dam will be the fourth major dam on the main stem of the White River. Others are Bull Shoals, Table Rock and Paversville dams.

Col. A. M. Jacoby, Little Rock Rock and Paversville dams.

Bobcats Lose To Conway By 7 to 0 Score

By Vincent Foster Hope Star Sports Writer

Last night the Hope Bobcats came out on the short end of a 7-0 heartbreaker with the Conway Wampus Cats at Conway. Conway is rated as one of the top AA football teams in the state, and had the Bobcats beaten or tied them as they almost did; it would have been a major upset in the state.

Conway had been picked over the Bobcats by 20 points, but the Hope defense, resembling 11 crimson out trick or treating.

a parable

We have loved this top hero story since childhood. A boy from the country, unused to war, meets the giant Philistine warrior. It is quiet faith arrayed against arrogant boasting... the rustic sling with a stone in it against the great spear in the hand of might. How unequal will be the combat! But watch the deeper battle... reverence against evil. The giant is against all good and is confident victory must go to the strong. David stands for spirituality upon which civilization must rest.

Thus the story is a parable of human life, in which the struggle between good and evil goes on forever in combat for the souls of us all. Evil has noise, power and wealth for support. But back of the struggle is the faith that "Right is right as God is God, and right the day must win." Then read God's word and support His church with your means and your presence, and say with Sir Galahad, "My strength is the strength of ten, because my heart is pure."

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

The Churches of This Community, Are the Only Institutions Which Have as Their Main Function, the Transforming of Human Lives
They Are the Sign Boards Pointing the Way to God.

Sponsors of these messages urge faithful church support. Through this series of pages the appeal is for all men to stand up and be counted . . . to combat Communism on all front . . . to be faithful to God.

Our Ministers Are God's Servants Who Call the Signals Against the Organized Forces of Evil. They Invite You to Enlist On the Side For God. . . to Come to Church.

"HE WHO WAITS UPON THE LORD SHALL RENEW HIS FAITH"
